

Page 91, Number 6 (letter)

Write a letter to a high school guidance counselor who wants to inform students about your chosen course of study. With your audience and purpose in mind, draft a letter that includes an effective opening, specifies important elements of the program and other relevant details in the body, and uses an appropriate closing. Use correct business-letter format when preparing your letter.