Dear Mr. and Mrs. Brady:

First and foremost, Tiny Tots Day Care would like to thank you for your continued support and interest in our facility. It is an honor to be able to join Brett in his life long journey to be all that he can be. We also appreciate the two of you volunteering for our fall festival, and we appreciate that you were willing to help with the costume making. Honestly, it is parents like you that make our jobs worthwhile.

As you know, Brett's behavior specifically in the two months he has been a Tiny Tot member has been less than satisfactory. As director, I am responsible for the safety and well being of all of our members, including Brett. We have documented reports of your son causing harm to the other children as well as staff members. Brett is an adorable child, with a great imagination but during playtime and other enrichment programs he is not able to get along with other children. He has bitten over six children, causing one child to have to get stitches.

We have had several conferences with both of you regarding the danger of this sort of behavior when other members are involved. Being the concerned, reasonable and dedicated parents you are I am sure you have been working with Brett to improve this behavior, and so have we. It is unfortunate that despite our efforts we have yet to see positive change in this area. After careful consideration, I have decided that the Tiny Tots environment may not be the best place for your child to attend day care. I regret to inform you that as of November 10, 2011 Brett Brady may no longer be a Tiny Tots Day Care member.

is it?

It is a great loss to us, but we believe that Brett will be better off in an environment more fit to his individuality. I know how difficult it can be to find child care on such short notice. We attached a paper with names, phone numbers and addresses to all day cares within a 10 mile radius of your home address. We would love to provide a letter of recommendation to speed up enrollment at any of these companies. Best wishes to the Brady family, and Happy Holidays!

Sincerely,

Randiesha Calloway
